Hey!
Now I have tried to find the webinars but I :silly: cannot. You must understand how much I need to learn:silly:

You access the webinars the same way you have been accessing them. They are the Joomla! SEO etc classes that you have been attending.

Or am i missing part of your question?

Links to the webinars are not yet on the HostRocks! site if that was what you are looking for. They are however still accessible at thebizreview.com

Ginny, I'm not sure if your problem is solved yet, but here's how thing are.

What you will find here is the calender for all of Troys' classes only. Just look for the Thyme calendar on Host@ocks!

You can access his scheduled Live classes right from the calendar, simply click on the day and look for the "join class" link.
